

Canberra
ICU

The Canberra Course

20-22nd November 2019

A preparation for the CICM Fellowship

Are you planning to sit the CICM Part II examination within the next two years? Then this course is for you!

We teach exam preparation and technique, with a focus on clinical examination skills using a range of formats from lectures and tuto-

About the Canberra course

The Canberra ICU Course aims to prepare candidates for participating in the College of Intensive Care Medicine Fellowship examination.

This course is suitable for those candidates beginning their preparation for the Fellowship Examination in Intensive Care Medicine.

Ideally participants would be 6-18 months from their exam sitting.

- ★ Lectures;
 - ★ Exam techniques
 - ★ Psychological preparation for the fellowship exam.
- Small group psychologist session;
- ★ Mock viva examinations including communication & interactive stations;
- ★ Tutorials on physical examinations;
- ★ Hot case technique tutorials; &
- ★ Mock hot case examinations.

Course content

The focus of this course will be on study and examination technique, with particular emphasis on physical examination skills. There will not be lectures on syllabus material.

The course will include formal lectures as well as opportunities for viva and clinical practice in tutorial and mock exam environments. A psychologist experienced in exam preparation will give both lectures and small group sessions.

The course is limited to 16 registrants to allow a small group atmosphere and maximize exposure to our course faculty and senior CICM examiners.

Fee for the three-day course is $1100. This includes all course content, compendium, morning tea, lunch & afternoon tea each day, and course dinner.

Contact

For any inquiries, please contact ICU at ICU@act.gov.au or on +612 62443305.

Registrations will be accepted after 5th August 2019.

Registration forms can be accessed from the College of Intensive Care Medicine www.cicm@act.gov.au or by emailing ICU@act.gov.au directly.

Canberra
ICU

The Canberra Course

20-22nd November 2019

A preparation for the CICM Fellowship

Are you planning to sit the CICM Part II examination within the next two years? Then this course is for you!

We teach exam preparation and technique, with a focus on clinical examination skills using a range of formats from lectures and tuto-

About the Canberra course

The Canberra ICU Course aims to prepare candidates for participating in the College of Intensive Care Medicine Fellowship examination.

This course is suitable for those candidates beginning their preparation for the Fellowship Examination in Intensive Care Medicine.

Ideally participants would be 6-18 months from their exam sitting.

- ★ Lectures;
 - ★ Exam techniques
 - ★ Psychological preparation for the fellowship exam.
- Small group psychologist session;
- ★ Mock viva examinations including communication & interactive stations;
- ★ Tutorials on physical examinations;
- ★ Hot case technique tutorials; &
- ★ Mock hot case examinations.

Course content

The focus of this course will be on study and examination technique, with particular emphasis on physical examination skills. There will not be lectures on syllabus material.

The course will include formal lectures as well as opportunities for viva and clinical practice in tutorial and mock exam environments. A psychologist experienced in exam preparation will give both lectures and small group sessions.

The course is limited to 16 registrants to allow a small group atmosphere and maximize exposure to our course faculty and senior CICM examiners.

Fee for the three-day course is $1100. This includes all course content, compendium, morning tea, lunch & afternoon tea each day, and course dinner.

Contact

For any inquiries, please contact ICU at ICU@act.gov.au or on +612 62443305.

Registrations will be accepted after 5th August 2019.

Registration forms can be accessed from the College of Intensive Care Medicine www.cicm@act.gov.au or by emailing ICU@act.gov.au directly.